PROJECT MERCURY EXPLAINED.
Welcome to Chicon 7!

Packed inside the (relatively) tiny document you now hold are the secrets of the universe for our convention. What’s happening, where it is, who’s there… all the good information is here. If we’ve done our job correctly, you’ll have to make some hard choices… there’s almost certainly going to be multiple things you wish to see that happen at the same time. All I can tell you is you have my sympathy; it happens to me every year. This is your very own treasure map. I suggest you take some time to flip through it and plan your time for the next few days. The best missions always start with good planning… best of luck in charting your own adventure.

For folks who are new to Worldcon, I’ll point out a few things of note. The concourse is located in the Riverside Center convention hall. This is in the east tower on the purple level (all the way down at the bottom). It holds most of our exhibits of fan history, fanzines, fannish activities and things that are just plain fun like exhibits from NASA. There’s social space to sit and chat in and a fan table area where you can get information on all sorts of other conventions and items you may find interesting. There’s also plenty of social space in our consuite, which is located in the west tower on the gold level. Consuite is open nearly 24 hours a day and can keep you supplied in free snacks and drinks until you have time to break away for a real meal. This happens to be right outside our art show, where we’re displaying hundreds of works of art from dozens of notable science fiction and fantasy artists, almost all available for sale. The art show is featuring a publication highlighting the artists and works on display: the Artists Showcase. It’s available for sale for $10 and includes art from almost every artist that is on display in the show. If you’re feeling a bit wonk-ish and want to see how the nuts and bolts of Worldcon operates, there’s a business meeting open to all attending members at 10:30 am on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday morning.

Then of course, there are thousands of people here for you to meet. As I write this, we’re well past 5,000 members and it looks like we’ll end up somewhere just over 6,000 members by the time the convention is done. I promise you, there are several folks you haven’t met yet who are “exactly” the kind of geek you are. Don’t be afraid to say hello to folks you’ve not met before; you will find you can make friends from all over.

Please enjoy your time in Chicago and have a wonderful convention.

Dave McCarty
Chairman
Chicon 7, the 70th Annual World Science Fiction Convention
Yes, You Do Need Your Badge!

It costs an incredible amount of money to run a Worldcon, so we take the issue of badges very seriously. You'll see badge checkers at the entrance to many functions at the con. You will need your badge to get into functions at the convention. Don't leave it in your room, don't hide it under your costume, wear it! Your badge is not just an identifier, it's a way to say "I Support Worldcon." Without your membership fee, and the volunteering of hundreds of fans and pros, Worldcon wouldn't be here.

So, please, keep your badge visible whenever you're in the Hyatt. Thank you.

Badges

Chicon 7 is a membership-only event. All members must wear their membership badges at all times. A badge is valid only for the person to whom it was issued; badges may not be shared under any circumstances. Children aged 7 or older must have a purchased membership for the convention, while children aged 6 and under must either be registered as a Kid-in-Tow or have a purchased membership.

Lost Badges

Check at Registration or at Lost and Found to see if your badge has been turned in. If it hasn't, Chicon 7 will charge you a fee to replace it.

Lost and Found

During the day (between 9am and 7pm), bring lost items to or ask about missing items at the Information Desk which is located at both the Grand Registration Desk on Gold East and at the Regency Registration Desk on Gold West (4pm to 7pm only).

At night (between 7pm and 9am), bring lost items to or ask about missing items at Convention Operations (Ops) in room Skyway 269 on the Blue East.

Weapons Policy

No actual weapon or any item that can be mistaken for one may be carried either openly or concealed at any time on properties being used for Chicon 7, regardless of any government permits which you may possess, unless it has been peace-bonded by Operations. If you want to carry such a weapon or are unsure whether your weapon might be considered realistic, you must present it to Operations, which is the final arbiter of which weapons require peace-bonding. In some instances, particular weapons may be prohibited.

1. Any actual weapon or any item purchased in the Dealers' Room that can be mistaken for one must be wrapped and immediately transported to your room or vehicle. If you want to use the item at the convention, please refer to point 1.
2. If an actual weapon or any item that can be mistaken for one is part of your Masquerade costume, you must transport it to and from the Masquerade Green Room wrapped securely unless the item is peace-bonded. The Masquerade director must approve your use of any weapons during the masquerade.

3. Live steel is prohibited. Operations is the final arbiter of what constitutes live steel.

4. Any weapon, whether actual, realistic, or toy/prop, that is used in a threatening or harmful manner may result in confiscation of the item and/or removal of your membership without refund.

5. Failure to adhere to any of the above policies is grounds for the removal of your membership without refund.

Common Sense Footnote

Party floors are crowded; we encourage you to leave your weapons/props in your room or vehicle.

Cubs Tickets

Chicon 7 has acquired a block of tickets for a Cubs game on Friday, August 31 at 1:20pm at Wrigley. The Cubs are playing the Giants. Tickets can be purchased for $32 each at the Registration desk. Tickets are limited, so check early. Transportation to the game is not provided by Chicon 7, but there are public transportation options available as well as cabs. Driving is not recommended as parking is expensive and hard to find. Ask the Information Desk for a handout describing the transportation options to the game.

Childcare

KiddieCorp will be offering a professional childcare service to all children aged 12 or under as of the start of the convention. This service will be located in the Silver West rooms of Burnham and Ogden. The service costs $12/hour for bookings made at the convention. Children with full ($75) Child Memberships receive their first 10 hours of childcare free of charge, subject to availability.

Please note that your children must be registered with the convention (whether with Child Memberships or as Kids-in-Tow) before they can be booked into the KiddieCorp service.

The childcare service will be available from 9:30 am to Midnight.

Due to regulations, children can only receive a maximum of 10 hours childcare on any single day.

Childcare capacity is limited and we urge parents to book all childcare hours in advance where possible, so we can ensure adequate staffing and service. Places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Booking at the convention is done in the Childcare rooms. All booking and payment arrangements are made directly between parents and KiddieCorp.

The convention will provide snacks and beverages, toys, games, age appropriate videos and some surprise programming items for your child in a safe, well-run, friendly environment.

Parents are expected to provide breakfast, lunch, and dinner, and diaper bags with all necessary equipment and supplies as required.

Parents must sign their children in and out throughout the day, and pick them up promptly at closing time.

Medication of any kind will NOT be administered by KiddieCorp or the convention.

Alcohol Policy

The legal drinking age in Illinois is 21. Hosts of registered hospitality events (parties) are required to card anyone who wants to drink at their event. Alcohol served by the hotel is allowed in convention function space. Please follow the hotel policies on alcohol consumption/transportation in hotel public spaces, such as the lobby.

Code of Conduct

Chicon 7's full Code of Conduct can be found in the Chicon 7 Souvenir book or on the Chicon 7 website.

Gophers

A convention this size requires hundreds of people to run. If you would like to help, please stop by Gophers HQ (located on Bronze West) or the Gopher Satellite Desk (located on Gold West) to volunteer some of your time.

We will have special goodies for the gophers (at press time, we were still working out exactly what stuff) and we will have a small lounge area in the Gophers HQ room where volunteers can sit and relax and play a couple of card games.

Volunteers who work at least 25 hours during Chicon 7 will be eligible for membership reimbursement, always presuming the convention turns enough of a profit. Hours before 11:30 am on Thursday, August 30 and hours after 4 pm on Monday, September 3 will count as double hours.

Do you know ASL (American Sign Language)? You may be able to earn triple hours if you volunteer to sign at one of our big events. Ask about this at Gophers HQ or at the Disability Services table in Gold East.

Chicon 7 Souvenirs

Chicon 7 is pleased to announce that Offworld Designs, operated by Ray and Barb VanTilburg, has been granted an exclusive license to produce convention merchandise. Offworld Designs, which did the same for both Chicon V and Chicon 2000, will offer a wide variety of useful and attractive items.

Offworld Designs will be selling Chicon 7 Souvenirs during registration hours near the Grand Registration desk on Gold East, near the Art Show in the Regency Foyer on Gold West, and at their tables in the Dealers' Room.

Souvenir items include: T-Shirts with original artwork by Ray VanTilburg; T-Shirts with Guests of Honor artwork; denim shirts; polo shirts; baseball caps; hoodies; badge wallets with pen; earrings; glass mugs; lapel pins; travel mugs; embroidered bags; flight jackets; patches; and more!
Information Desks

The Chicon 7 Information Desks, located on Gold East and on Gold West (for limited hours), can help you with everything from “Where is this program room?” to “Where do I get a copy of today’s Newsletter?” The Information Desk can also help you with finding things in Chicago itself, like “Where is Wrigley Field?” or “Where is the nearest grocery store?” When in danger or in doubt, just ask at the Info Desk.

Disability Services

The Disability Services desk is located in the Grand Foyer on Gold East. If you pre-ordered a scooter or a wheelchair, this is where you can pick it up. This is also where you can drop it off on Monday. All scooters and wheelchairs MUST be returned by 5 pm on Monday, September 3.

Fire Sale

Chicon 7 purchased quite a bit of equipment for use at this convention, but once the convention is over, the stuff has got to go! There will be many things for sale at rock bottom, or even garage sale, prices! Refrigerators, couches, printers, foam core, pens, lots of different things both big and small. The Convention Office, located in Skyway 261 on Blue East will be compiling a list of the things that will be for sale and will be taking bids on the items just like the silent auction of the Art Show. On Monday, September 3, at 1 pm, the Fire Sale Auction will begin in Grand B. Everything that received at least 4 bids in the silent auction will be voice auctioned to the highest bidder. Items can be picked up between 3 pm and 8 pm on Monday. If you cannot pick up the item by 8 pm, please talk to the Convention Office to make other arrangements.

Voodoo Boards

What the heck is a voodoo board? Why, that’s simple. It’s a low tech way to tell people that you have arrived at the convention and that can be used to pass messages back and forth when you don’t know someone’s phone number. And why is it called a Voodoo board? Because you stick pins in it! It’s really quite easy to use:

1. Step 1. Find your name. If you weren’t pre-registered, write yourself in as lastname, firstname.

2. Step 2. The first time you go to the board, put a checkmark next to your name in pen to show people you’ve arrived.

3. Step 3. To leave a message, go to the adjacent desk, get an index card, and write the person’s name and your message on it. File it in the message box, alphabetically by their last name. Then stick a pin next to their name on the Voodoo board to indicate that a message is waiting.
4. Step 4. To pick up a message, find your name on the board. If there’s a pin, check the message box under your last name to find your message.

Headquarters Hotel

The Hyatt Regency Chicago
151 E. Wacker Dr.
Chicago, IL 60601
312-565-1234

As of January 1, 2008, all indoor workplaces and public places (including bars/taverns, restaurants, private clubs, and casinos) are smoke-free in Chicago. Due to this law, the Hyatt Regency Chicago has only specially designated smoking rooms available. The Hyatt will charge a $250 cleaning fee if you smoke in a non-smoking room.

The Chicago Hyatt Regency is ADA compliant except for a restroom in the third floor West Tower function area as well as the Buckingham room.

NOTHING, absolutely NOTHING, can be attached, in any way, shape, or form, to anything owned by the Hyatt by convention members!!! This goes for personal rooms (aka party rooms) as well as function space! Not to a wall, not to a doorway, not to a window, and probably not even to a chair! Set on? Yes. Attached? No!

Parking

The current overnight rate is $52.00 for non-convention guests. Convention members get a 50% discount from the published guest rate, so our rate at this time would be $26.00.

Parties General Rules

Ice will be available through the Hyatt at $6 per 20-pound bag (includes tax and gratuity) at an “Ice Table” that the Hyatt will run outside of the Skyway rooms Thursday to Sunday evening from 6-9 pm. You will be able to get free bathtub liners (limited supply) from the convention if you plan to use the tub for cooling drinks through Facilities Office at Skyway 285.

Due to Hyatt policy, signs and banners cannot be affixed to doors, walls, and Hyatt furniture. The convention will have areas for posting party signs throughout convention and Hyatt space.

Corkage has been waived in suites and rooms. (However, if you order items such as glasses from the Hyatt, you have to use Hyatt provided supplies with those items.).

Beds cannot be moved or taken down.

Pets

The Hyatt policy is that only service animals are allowed.

Pool

The Hyatt does not have a pool.
Refrigerators

The Hyatt will provide refrigerators on request for a $25 flat charge (no tax or other added charge) for any length of stay. If the refrigerator is needed for medical reasons, there is no charge. [Mini-Bars – The Hyatt does not allow the emptying of mini-bars for use as a refrigerator. You will be charged if you move mini-bar items even within the mini-bar. Don’t touch anything in the mini-bar unless you expect to pay for it.]

Packages and Letters

The Hyatt charges for receipt of letters and packages to be held for guests. The charge for a letter is $6; for packages, the charge is based on weight. The package rates are $7 for under five pounds (5 lbs.), $13 for 6-20 lbs., $24 for 21-50 lbs., and $60 for 51 lbs. and over. Prices are subject to change.

Taxes

Hotel occupancy tax for City of Chicago is currently at 16.4%

Telephone

The surcharge for local calls is a $1 access fee plus tax and zone rates (published in your Hyatt room). The long distance surcharge is $0.75 access fee plus $0.025 per minute plus tax. Toll-free calls cost $1 access fee plus tax. For long distance, the actual cost of the call (likely not discounted at all from full carrier rates) will also be added.

Cell Phone Reception

Cell phone reception in Hyatt function space below the lobby level can be a little iffy, depending on where you are and your carrier.

Wi-Fi

Internet access (hard wired) is available in rooms for $9.95 per day plus tax. Wi-Fi access will be Free/Complimentary to members in convention function areas [Riverside and all meeting rooms].

Near the Hyatt

Connected to the hotel is Illinois Center with 30+ fast food and sit-down restaurants (limited hours on some days of the holiday weekend).
Less than a block from the Hyatt is a grocery store with party supplies.
The hotel is next to Chicago’s Magnificent Mile. It’s a short walk to the Chicago Loop, shopping, entertainment, museums, and parks. Within 3 blocks away is Anish Kapoor’s Cloud Gate sculpture (“the Bean”).
Overflow Hotel – Sheraton Chicago
Sheraton Chicago Hotel & Towers
301 East North Water Street
Chicago, IL 60611-4300
312-329-7000

The Sheraton Chicago is not connected to the Hyatt. The Sheraton is directly across the river, a 2 block, 4 minute walk (some stairs, though a bit longer walk if you avoid using the stairs) across the N Columbus Dr bridge to the front door of the Hyatt Regency. The Sheraton will not be used for parties or programming. A main feature of the Sheraton is that it has a pool for guests.

Con Suite

We are pleased to be able to welcome you to Chicon 7 for a taste of midwestern hospitality! Our ConSuite is located in the Gold level of the West Tower in the Hong Kong, Toronto, and Acapulco rooms. This is an area where we provide food and drink, and in which all members are welcome to take a load off and socialize with other fen. In addition, there will be a cash bar serving an excellent suggestion of Chicago area beers Thursday through Sunday from 5-11 pm in the Toronto room.

The Teen Lounge is near the ConSuite in the Atlanta room, and will generally be open from 10 am-2 am daily. Our Teen Lounge head, Jesi Pershing, has games and some light programming prepared for this area. We know that our teens have their own ideas about what they'd like to do for fun, so we're leaving the schedule here “loose” to allow them the most flexibility and spontaneity possible.

The Green Room and Staff Lounge have been co-located in the Skyway in 272 (food served) and 260 (overflow seating). This is an area for our Guests and program participants to gather prior to or after their program item to grab some refreshments, meet up with their fellow panelists, and just relax. Our staff is also welcome to make use of this area while they are on duty, or just before or after they go on duty.

Chris Garcia, a Hugo Award Winning Fanzine Editor (The Drink Tank) is your congenial host in our Fanzine Lounge, which will be in the Main Exhibit area. Ask him nicely for a re-enactment of his Hugo acceptance speech!

Concourse

Located in the Riverside Center next to the Dealer’s Room, the Concourse will have a number of exhibits and other items of interest. This is where you’ll find the Voodoo Boards, a Fan Lounge, the Site Selection tables, and the Fanzine Programming. There will be exhibits for two of our guests, Mike Resnick and Peggy Rae Sapienza, the latter including her collection of kaleidoscopes. We also have the Chaos Machine, the Worldcon Heritage Exhibit (where you’ll be able to see not only a selection of past Hugo awards, but this year’s as well), a NASA Exhibit, a History of Fandom in Chicago Exhibit, a First Fandom Exhibit, a Japanese Fandom Exhibit, and exhibits of the artwork of William Rotsler and Leo Dillon and the photography of JK Klein. Finally, there will be Battletech Pods and a collection of classic video games for your gaming enjoyment.
Fan Tables

Also located in the Concourse, conveniently across from the Site Selection Tables, you’ll find the Fan Tables, where you can get information and buy memberships for upcoming conventions. There will also be various groups such as the Heinlein Society, Worlds Without End, and the Luna Society there.

Haggard Room (The Haggard Room of the Frank House)

Jane Frank’s husband Howard began collecting the books of H. Rider Haggard as a child and Howard’s interest in fantasy as an art and literary form have long been influenced by Haggard’s writing. Over time, Jane read all the Haggard books too, and suggested creating a room in their house that could showcase specifically commissioned art based on Haggard’s work. Each painting displayed in the room would be created by a major artist, and decorated in Victorian era furnishings.

The art in the Haggard Room represents scenes from works including “She” (Michael Whelan), “King Solomon’s Mines” (Don Maitz), and “The Ancient Allan” (Bob Eggleton). Other artists included in this collection are by Gary Ruddell, Donato Giancola, Ian Miller, Jeff Jones, Richard Bober, and Steve Hickman.

Chicon 7 is pleased to provide its own re-creation of the Haggard Room where the art commissioned and collected by the Franks can be exhibited and which can be used for discussions of art, classic fantasy literature, the Victorian period, and steampunk.

The Fan Lounge

If you enjoy stimulating conversation while surrounded by decades of fannish publications, you’ll want to join us un the Fan Lounge, conveniently located on the Concourse near the Exhibits. Come and thrill to the exciting adventures of fanzine editors, writers, and artists, or just come to plop down and get into the deep thoughts of some of fandom’s most colorful characters! Or even just stop by, pick up a zine, and have a gander! Maybe you wanna come along to enjoy some of the spontaneous activities that always seem to germinate in the Lounge. We’ll also be hosting Kaffeeklatsches and various programming items!

Art Show

There will be art from over 100 artists in the Art Show at Chicon. There will be 2-D and 3-D art for sale. There will be both Quick Sale and After Auction sales besides the silent auction, so make sure to stop in and get a bidder number—it is NOT your badge number.

There will be a print shop where you can get art at a set price. There will also be an Artist Faire inside the art show this year where artists can sit and work and sell what they make. You do not have to bid on pieces you purchase directly from the artist at the Faire.
Art Show Docent Tours

Enhance your experience of the Worldcon Art Show with a docent-led art show tour. The tours are led by a variety of people with individual perspectives. Each will take about an hour. You’ll get an overview, discussion of particular pieces, and whatever each tour leader may bring. You might find yourselves talking about buying, bidding, and collecting, or the ways different media work, or how artists give a sense of realism while they’re showing strange devices and dreams. John Hertz has organized 2-3 tours a day. To join one, meet outside the Art Show in the Regency Ballroom Foyer when the tour starts, at 10 am, or 2 or 4 pm; check your pocket program or our online guide for details.

Art Auction

Remember I mentioned a silent auction in the art show? Well, any piece that gets five bids will go to the live auction on Sunday afternoon up in the Crystal Ballroom at 3:00 pm. We have a great set of auctioneers lined up, so it should be a lot of fun. Come watch even if you didn't bid on anything—you might see something you missed that you really want or need to get for a gift.

Chesley Art Award

The Chesley Awards are presented at Worldcon and this year is no exception. There will be a slide show of the nominees’ work and the presentation of the awards on Friday evening in Comiskey at 7:30 pm followed by a reception in the Art Show with a Charity Auction.

Dealers’ Room

The Dealers’ Room is the single largest space at Chicon 7. You’ll find everything from book sellers carrying an extremely wide selection of science fiction, fantasy, alternate history, and other genres to very small private presses that are associated with science fiction and fantasy groups from around the country. It’s a mix of rare book sellers and dealers offering some of the finest pulp and comics. Costumers: Steampunk! Fantasy costumes of every genre under the sun. Clothiers selling everything from T-shirts to just about any fabric item you can embroider or add a silk screen to wearable art. Jewelry, from traditional silver and stone jewelry to science fiction materials like niobium. Music: a wide assortment including recordings by many of the filk performers at the convention.

Newsletter

The Write Stuff is Chicon 7’s twice-daily newsletter. Contents range from program changes to nightly party listings in the front page sidebar to interesting/funny quotes in the second page sidebar. Main stories cover advice for Worldcon and convention newbies, details about special, unique to Worldcon, program items such as Stroll With The Stars and the Adler Planetarium evening, the WSFS business meeting, general announcements.
as needed during the con, and the occasional restaurant review. As a long-time comics fan, no news publication can be complete without the occasional “Spider-Man: Threat or Menace” headline (i.e. space permitting, we’re hoping to have some humor in here).

We’d like to crowdsource a lot. The first issue will have details as to how to submit funny/interesting quotes from program items, restaurant/dish reviews, photos, and possibly videos via email or Twitter.

World Science Fiction Society (WSFS) Business Meetings

The World Science Fiction Society (WSFS) consists of every member of the current Worldcon. The WSFS rules, published in the Souvenir Book, consist of a Constitution containing the rules for the Hugo Awards and for the selection of future Worldcons, as well as The Standing Rules for the conduct of the Business Meeting. The Business Meeting is held on the second, third, and fourth mornings of the Worldcon (rarely, a meeting on the fifth day is required). Every attending member of Chicon 7 can attend the meeting, propose changes, debate those changes, and vote on them. For Chicon 7, the business meetings will be held Friday through Sunday from 10:30 am to 1:00 pm.

Changes to the WSFS Constitution, including any changes to the rules for the Hugo Awards, must be approved by votes at two consecutive Worldcons. In addition, there may be new proposals introduced this year. This meeting may defeat and amend new proposals. Meetings are conducted under a relatively formal structure, codified in Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised and the WSFS Standing Rules. The deadline for submitting new proposals to the Business Meeting is fourteen (14) days before the first Preliminary Meeting. The Presiding Officer may accept otherwise qualified motions submitted after the deadline, but all such motions shall be placed at the end of the agenda. See the Standing Rules and email bm@chicon.org if you have questions. Also, check the newsletter for any updates about the Business Meeting throughout the convention.

Site Selection

Voting for the site of the 2014 (72nd) Worldcon will take place at the Site Selection tables located in the Riverside Center Concourse near the Fan Tables. The hours are 3 pm–6 pm on Thursday August 30, and 10 am–6 pm on Friday Aug. 31 and Saturday Sept. 1. The Site Selection Advance Supporting Membership is $40 US, and will automatically make you a Supporting Member of the 2014 Worldcon; all voters must be at least a supporting member of Chicon 7. The choices on the ballot are London in 2014, Write-in, No Preference, and None of the Above. The results of the vote will be announced at the WSFS Business Meeting on Sunday, Sept. 2.
Opening Ceremonies

On Thursday afternoon at 3 pm in the Grand Ballroom, Chicon 7 presents the late afternoon talk show with host John Scalzi and the musical interpretations of Toyboat. Join them as they talk with Mike Resnick, Rowena Morrill, Jane Frank, Peggy Rae Sapienza, Sy Liebergot, and Dave McCarty about their current projects. Here is your chance to meet Chicon 7’s Guests of Honor before our 5 day mission of discovery begins.

First Night at the Adler Planetarium

South Lobby (Accessible Entrance)

Thursday, 8/30/2012 from 6:30–10:30 pm

Badged Event

Chicon 7 will be taking over the Adler Planetarium! Join us for light snacks and fun with space! During the reception, Chicon members can view the museum exhibits. Weather permitting: the Doane Observatory will be open and the museum will host a sky-viewing session on the Upper Terrace with telescopes and docents. The Grainger Sky Theater will be running 5 shows of “The Searcher” for $5/ticket available for purchase at the event.

Shuttle Service (wheelchair accessible)

6:00–11:00 pm

Hyatt Regency pick-up/drop-off: Wacker Drive in front of the East Tower

Adler Planetarium pick-up/drop-off: Solidarity Drive in front the museum

Driving:

Parking will be available after 4:00 pm for $13 at the Adler Planetarium Lot on Solidarity Drive.

Can’t get enough of the Adler Planetarium? Chicon 7 badges are good for free entry to the museum the Friday through Monday of the convention!

More information can be found at www.chicon7.org/adler.php.

Masquerade Registration

Masquerade registration will be located in the Grand Foyer, just to the south of con registration. If you plan to enter the masquerade, please register early to sign up for the most convenient rehearsal time.

Thursday: noon to 6 pm, also possibly 7 pm to 9 pm

Friday: 10 am to 6 pm, also possibly 7 pm to 9 pm

Saturday: 10 am to noon.

Neil Gaiman Theatre

From the same folks who brought Dr. Horrible’s Sing-Along Blog to Capricon 2011 comes a new, spellbinding theatrical double-bill, for mature audiences only and only at Chicon 7:

Snow, Glass, Apples

and

Troll Bridge

Adapted from Neil Gaiman’s short stories. The first performance will be presented Friday at 1:30 pm in Columbus
CD. The second performance will be Sunday, also at 1:30 pm in Columbus CD.

Regency Dancing

Join Dance Master John Hertz for an afternoon of gracious Regency dancing. Dances will be called or taught. No experience is necessary. Come with or without a partner. Costumes are encouraged but not required. The Regency Dance will be held from 4 pm to 6 pm Friday, August 31, in Crystal Ballroom B.

Moebius Theatre

Moebius Theater will be presenting a staged audio production of an adaptation of The Island of Dr. Moreau at Chicon 7. The running time will be between 60 and 90 minutes without an intermission. The performance is scheduled for 8:00 pm August 31, and will be presented in the Grand Ballroom.

Geek Prom

Destination Moon—Come join DJ James A and the Empress as we spin all of your favorite tunes. We'll be featuring geek anthems and dance music all night long. Got a request? We might be able to fill it. Want to dance like no one is watching? We encourage it! We'll even have a photo op for you and your date. Don't have a date? We'll provide a stand-in who is not your cousin! Join us for a magical evening a mongst the stars in Crystal Ballroom B on Friday night from 8 pm til midnight!

Masquerade

Prepare to be dazzled and amazed on Saturday at the Masquerade. At 8 pm in the Grand Ballroom, the Masquerade will feature costumers from near and far presenting costumes in demonstrations ranging from simple to complex and from individuals to large groups. It will be the highlight of the evening. Our staff is preparing to give them the physical and technical support they need to make their presentations—and the show as a whole—a success.

The Hugo Awards Ceremony

The Hugo Award® is the leading award for excellence in the field of science fiction and fantasy. The Hugos are presented at a formal ceremony which is always one of the highlights of the Worldcon, and Chicon 7’s ceremony will be no different. Join us to honor the greats in our field on Sunday, September 2, 2012 at 8 pm in the Grand Ballroom.

Closing Ceremonies

Now that you’ve spent several days trying to see everything, talk to everyone and do everything, come to the passing of the baton. Our “morning” talk show will take a quick look back at Chicon 7. Our highlights are sure to include something you didn't get to, while a look forward at LoneStar Con 3 will whet your appetite for more. Monday, Sept. 3, at 3 pm in Columbus IJ/KL.
Stroll With the Stars

A nice morning stroll with some of our favorite authors, artists and editors. (And we stress, “stroll”—def: a leisurely walk. This will not be a heart-pounding aerobic activity, it will be a stroll). Join us for some fresh air, a healthy stroll and some good conversation. A leisurely mile—which will take a little less than an hour.

Stroll With the Stars will meet every morning 9:00 am at the Big Front Door of the Hyatt (Main Entrance, Atrium Lobby, Green Level, East Tower–this is the main entrance, which looks at the river, on Wacker Drive) and we'll return to the hotel before 10:00 am.

FRIDAY–Scott Edelman, Ellen Datlow, Edward James, Mary Robinette Kowal, Farah Mendlesohn, Lawrence M. Schoen, Stu Segal

SATURDAY–Paul Cornell, Deanna Hoak, George R.R. Martin, Farah Mendlesohn, Stephen Segal, Sheila Williams, Connie Willis, Stu Segal

SUNDAY–Kate Baker, Selena Chambers, Gay Haldeman, Joe Haldeman, GOH Story Musgrave, John Scalzi, Lawrence M. Schoen, Cat Valente, Stu Segal

MONDAY–Laura Anne Gilman, Liz Gorinsky, Deanna Hoak, Stephen H. Segal, Steven H. Silver, Stu Segal . . . and we’ll have guest zombies shambling along on Monday!

Programming

Academic Programming

Chicon 7’s Academic program is presented throughout the convention giving attendees the opportunity to experience new and current research on a variety of Science and Fiction topics. This is a spotlight of scholarly presentations that run throughout the weekend.

Science Fiction for Educators (Teaching SF)

Thursday 12 noon–7:30 pm Comiskey
Sunday 9 am–3 pm Comiskey
Chicon 7 proudly presents two days of paneling of special interest to parents, educators and librarians. Focused on using Science Fiction to teach and inspire students, this is a mini conference within the convention.

Autographing

Guidelines to help everyone enjoy the autograph experience:
1. No more than 3 books per pass through the line.
2. Once you have had your 3 books signed you may return to the end of the line for a second pass
3. Authors have 70 minutes for signing and will leave at the end of their sessions
4. If you have a complex dedication, please write the dedication in advance and present it to the author with your book.
5. Please respect our staff and their requests.

Writer Under Glass

This isn’t actually a panel, but a stunt. Writers volunteer to sit in a certain place (Fan Lounge) for 30-40 minutes each and write serially on a collaborative story. Each takes up where the previous left off throughout the run of the convention. The resulting manuscript will be printed out only once, signed by all the writers, and entered into a charity auction as a contribution from all the writers. Con attendees can watch the writers at work—this has to be done in public like Harlan Ellison's writing in shop windows—but may not harass them. The story is complete at the end of the con and no other copies will be made without consent of all the writers who participated.

Kaffeeklatsches and Literary Bheers

Kaffeeklatsches and Literary Bheers are small group discussions with authors, artists and other interesting personalities. Please sign up for Kaffeeklatsches and Literary Bheers at the information desk. Signup sheets will be available a half day in advance. Individual sessions are strictly limited and some hosts are very popular so you must sign up in advance. Each person in line may sign up for only one Kaffeeklatsche or Bheer per session. We will have 3 reserve spots in case someone does not show up or cancels. Attendees who have not turned up by the start of the session will have their spot assigned to a reserve. In order to be fair to those on the reserve lists, private substitutions are not allowed, the person on the list must be the person who attends and you can not trade spaces. You may join a session as it starts if there are free slots available and no reserve people are waiting.

NOTE: Please bring your own beverage with you.

1632

Join Eric Flint, and the entire 1632 crew for the 2012 edition of the 1632 Mini-con. This is a series of panels based on the 1632 stories by Eric Flint.

Dragon*Con

We are very excited this year to have the opportunity to share programming with Dragon*Con. The two conventions are working together to present programming with panelists in both locations working together through a video conference.

Anime & Cartoons

64 Hours of Cartoons?!?!? Chicon7 hosts an Animation Room that will be the talk of Worldcons to come. From pre-WWII US cartoons to the newest Japanese anime, we'll have a sampling of everything that makes animation and science fiction a partnership made for a Worldcon audience. Astro Boy to Dirty Voltron, Fleisher to Jones, and many more of the great cartoons that are both childish and adult.

Special thanks to Thomas Safer, who has a repository of thousands of hours of cartoons, some never seen outside of the vaults of Warner Brothers and Hanna Barbara in decades. Tom will make short historical and informational presentations before each showing. His most interesting find are the cartoons of the WWII era.

Anime at Chicon7 was prepared by the folks from ACen (aka: Anime Central), the largest anime convention in the central United States. We'll be handing out special tickets every hour on the hour to the people in the Animation Room. At the end of each day we'll do a drawing for some wonderful prizes donated to Chicon7 by ACen and the US anime production houses FUNimation and Media Blasters.
Chicon 7 Independent Film Festival

The Chicon 7 Independent Film Festival will showcase the best film shorts, features and trailers from around the world, specializing in the science fiction, fantasy, horror and comic genres. The festival’s motto is “A showcase for film makers to share their works and for people to experience”.

ChiKidz

Our children’s program is called ChiKidz and is for children aged 6 through 12, and also their parents.
We have a program for the full weekend, involving crafts, games, toys, mini-projects, books, comics, and a bit of space for children to enjoy. We want to create a room where there is always something to do, where science and engineering meet fiction, film, books, comics, and the fantastic.
ChiKidz is not a child-minding service – it is programming for kids. The children’s program will operate a sign-in facility for children who are Chicon 7 members. Children can be signed in for a maximum of four hours at a time. (Everyone needs a break!)
These activities allow kids to have their own convention time. We will have a ribbon system in place for parents, children who can come and go, and children who must be with a parent in place.
Younger children are welcome in the continual company of their parents. We will have a seating area so parents can have a moment of peace while watching the chaos.
Out now from Berkley Sensation/Penguin Group!

We’re Here, We’re Queer... Are We Used to It
The appearance of queer characters in SF goes all the way back to the first story of Robert Heinlein’s featuring Lazarus Long, published in 1949. But for decades GLBT characters were relegated to the background in “mainstream” SF. Recently, though, as queer characters have started to become commonplace in mundane TV, movies, and books, so have they moved into the forefront in genre media, even video games. Lost Girl (Syfy) features a bisexual main heroine, Marvel comics just had their first gay wedding, Dragon Age has a gay romance plotline... The Pioneering Specialty Science Fiction, and Fantasy Book Publishers

Small press publishers had a tremendous impact on early SF. Oversized Personalities in Fiction and Fandom

When reading our favorite novels or watching movies, we often come across characters who have too large a personality to be real, but we’re drawn to them. In fandom, there are individuals who enter a room and everyone knows who they are, even those who have never met them before. How are these real life fans similar to the fictional constructs and in which cases is their gregariousness just as fictional as a character’s?

Should SF Be More Optimistic?

When authors talked about the slow pace of technological innovation, the technologists turned around and criticized science fiction for its lack of vision in recent years, saying SF authors spend too much time on dystopian visions like The Road, The Walking Dead, and the I, Robot film. What happened to the optimistic future of Star Trek? Are writers spending too much effort on worst-case scenarios instead of what might be accomplished? Is any of this the fault of readers, publishers, or media companies?

Lynda Williams Oru, Niall Harrison, Kathryn Allan, Katy Stauber, Alvaro Zinos-Amaro

62 Crystal A 1.5 hrs.

Faith in Fiction

Faith—or even the considered rejection of faith—is an area often overlooked in world-building for speculative fiction in spite of the impact it’s had on our world (for good and bad). How does faith affect the world view and formation of a fictional world?

Shanna Swendson, Tim Akers, Laurel Anne Hill, Paul Genesse, Isabel

Logic and Time Travel

If time travel stories are inherently illogical, how can we read them—let alone write them?

James Bryant, Lawrence Person, Tony Pi, Laura Frankos, Anaea Lay

64 Buckingham 1.5 hrs.

Storytelling the Old-Fashioned Way

An exploration of the oral tradition of storytelling and how it relates to writing fiction. This panel of storytellers and writers will discuss tricks and techniques of oral storytelling that will and won’t work in the written form.

M Todd Gallowglas, Marie Bilodeau, Deirdre Murphy, Michael R. Underwood, B.A. Chepaitis

65 Comiskey 1.5 hrs.

The Hunger Games in the Classroom

The Hunger Games, the first novel in Suzanne Collins’ best-selling trilogy about a futuristic government that conscripts children into an annual televised death match, won an award for excellence in children's science fiction. In March 2012, the movie version was released. Should this kind of book or movie be included in a public school classroom curriculum?

David-Glenn Anderson, Violette Malan, Val Ontell, Stina Leicht, Kay Kenyon

66 Gold Coast 1.5 hrs.

GOH Reading: Mike Resnick

67 Stagg Field 1.5 hrs.

Great Literary Soundtracks

Who can forget the thrilling downbeat at the beginning of Childhood’s End or the love theme from King Kelson’s Bride. What makes a book’s soundtrack memorable? How does the composer create a unique aural experience for each individual work of fiction?

J. Williams, H. Mancini, M. Robinton

68 San Francisco 1.5 hrs.

SF and Border Science

From a writer/publisher point of view... You in the USA are masters in this, but seeing the point of view from Italy (a country which, in the last century at least, has despised scientific culture) might be interesting.

Dystopias have always been a part of science fiction. Have they changed over the decades? If so, how? If not, why not?

This panel discusses how throughout the history of writing the instrument used has affected not only the ease of writing but actually the content and even the philosophy of the writer.

From biometrics to immersive VR, how technology is changing and what that means for interactive entertainment.

Sy Liebergot speaks about what it was like to be a Flight Controller in Mission Control when a monster failure occurred during the Apollo 13 mission and landed squarely in his lap. He relates the general details of the explosion as they really happened.

Beyond the First Two Pages
We’ve all heard how important it is to hook a reader’s attention quickly. But let’s say you’ve already done that. Your story’s opening dramatic, ingenious, and free of typos. Your first two pages have been polished to near oblivion. Now what?

Darlene Marshall (Eve Ackerman), Pat Rothfuss, John Berlyne, Nick Mamatas, Carol Berg
Female Villains

Where are the female villains in our stories today? We often speak of writing strong female characters, but what about strong female villains? The villain is often the hero/heroine in his/her own story, yet we rarely see strong female villains portrayed in SF&F. An examination of characterization that moves beyond the ever popular rape scenario that is often given as a primary motivation for women seeking revenge. Sometimes, women are just mean. Let's look at them.

Stina Leicht, Martha Wells, Joan D. Vinge, David Boop, Gene Wolfe

1632: Weird Tech 1

Why alternate-history tech is different than real world tech and how that effects plot and story arc using examples from the 1632 series.

Walter Boyes, Mark Huston, Laura Runkle, David Carrico, Paula Goodlett

Game Show: Iron Chef Flash Fiction

The aim of the game is to write a short story in less than 5 minutes. The moderator will give the panelists a subject to write about, and after 5 minutes our writers will each read their masterpieces and let the audience decide the winner before they head into the next round. Three rounds are planned but a fourth will be added if time permits.

The earliest fairy tales; blood 'n' guts adventure stories of the 19th century; penny dreadfuls, pulp novels, and horror comics; all the violently orphaned and threatened Disney heroines and heroes; grimly realistic and gritty juvenile fiction in the 1970s; up to today's violent, brutal, scary, and dystopian YA fiction—as long as kids and teens have been reading, they've lapped up these dark tales and begged for more. What's behind the fascination of younger people with dark themes in fiction? Does it hurt them? Is it morbid? Or do these fictional tropes serve a vital purpose?
| 2:12 pm | McCormick    | Young Adult Trends

| 2:15 pm | Crystal C    | Transhumanism: Where Do We, as Homo Sapiens, Go From Here?
Western society is rapidly moving toward a time when many dreams of the transhumanism movement, such as advanced genetic engineering, prosthetics, organ/neuro-implants, and age retardation/reversal will become reality. The question is how society—including speculative fiction writers—will respond to this evolutionary change in human beings.

The Future of Food

Science fiction rarely discusses what people will eat in the future. Denny Zager and Rick Evans’ 1969 hit song “In the Year 2525” predicted “Everything you think, do and say is in the pill you took today.” Will the future really replace barbecue and burgers with tablets and capsules? How far can nutriceuticals go? Are food “printers” and test-tube meats moving out of the realm of science fiction? How are cuisines and tastes evolving? What drives them?

Common cons, scams, and shady deals are guaranteed to pop up in every artist's life. The panelists will tell how to spot scams and how to graciously bow out without getting taken.

The Art of Writing Effective Book Reviews
Professional science fiction book reviewers discuss how to write effective book review in the SF, fantasy and horror genres.

Mary Shelley Frankenstein (1831)
Here is one of those books everyone talks about but no one has read. It is poetic and pungent. The man runs; the monster blames; what is missing from this picture? The author puts in a blind man to make sure we see. Cries for sympathy pour from the monster's lips. Where have we heard them before?

George R. R. Martin, Melinda Snodgrass, Paul Cornell, Mary Anne Mohanraj, Stephen Leigh, Carrie Vaughn
Program Schedule

283 Crystal C 1.5 hrs.

Medicine and Science Fiction
How has medicine influenced science fiction, and how has science fiction influenced the development of new technologies in medicine?

Lisa C Freitag, Brad Aiken, Christopher Kovacs, Kendall F. Morris, Catherine Shaffer

284 Plaza Ballroom 1.5 hrs.

Concert: Dave Perry and Amy McNally
Celtic Fiddle and American Roots. Pegasus-award winner Amy McNally and Chicago musician David Perry, two of the musicians in the Midwestern Irish band The Tooles, team up to celebrate the release of Amy's new CD, “Hazardous Fiddle.” Come hear original songs, eclectic covers, and traditional tunes about cars, bars, women, hockey, drinking, and just a touch of profane salvation.

Amy McNally, David Perry

285 Buckingham 1.5 hrs.

The Fannish Inquisition
Do you want to hear more about the sites bidding on Worldcon? During Chicon 7 we will be voting for the location of the 2014 Worldcon (London, England is currently running unopposed). Come hear what other sites have to say about why you should vote for their area.

Peggy Rae Sapienza, Alex Von Thorn, Mike Scott, Adam Beaton

286 Columbian KK#3 1.5 hrs.

Kaffeeklatsch: D.H. Aire

287 Columbian KK#4 1.5 hrs.

Kaffeeklatsch: Joshua Palmtier/Benjamin Tate

288 Comiskey 1.5 hrs.

Nerdsleque: Filking for Burlesque?
The neo burlesque movement seems to be full of nerds and geeks in troupes such from New York's Epic Win Burlesque to Portland's Critical Hit, even individual shows like NERDZ in Seattle and the Hitchhiker's Guide to Burlesque in Los Angeles. Some acts are fun and campy tributes to fan favorites while other numbers offer a serious contemplation. Either way, it's a love letter.

Amber Clark

289 Gold Coast 1.5 hrs.

Star Wars at 35
May 2012 marked the 35th anniversary release of the original Star Wars. How did this film change SF movies and what would the world look like if it had never been? Are today's kids seeing it as the first movie in the series or are they now watching it in episode order? And if the latter, why would anyone continue after The Phantom Menace?

Daniel M. Kimmel, Jason Schachat, James Kahn, Michael Lee, Toni Bogolub

290 Picasso 1.5 hrs.

Friday Feedback Session
Tell us what you think we should know about the convention.

Dave McCarty

291 Wrigley 1.5 hrs.

The Walking Dead: Zombies in Folklore, Science, and Popular Culture
Contrasting the original Haitian Vodoun concept of zombieism with scientific explanations involving poisons that mimic suspended animation (e.g. Wade Davis “The Serpent and the Rainbow”) and with current George Romero and post-Romero depictions in fiction and film.

James S. Dorr, Nick Mamatas, Deirdre Crimmins, Chris Deis
292  San Francisco  1.5 hrs.
SF at the University of Chicago Over the Years
A retrospective of the various generations of fans who have added to the traditions of SF at the University of Chicago and beyond.
Bradford Lyau, John Scalzi, Kenneth Hite, Alessandra Kelley, Richard Garfinkle

293  Columbus CD  1.5 hrs.
Interview with Mike Resnick
Interview with Guest of Honor Mike Resnick by his longtime friend and sometime collaborator, Barbara Galler-Smith, about his more than 50 years in the science fiction community. From pulps, fandom, Masquerades, and tricks of the business of writing, Mike freely talks about it all.
Barbara Galler-Smith, Mike Resnick

294  Columbus EF  1.5 hrs.
Scale and Space: Seeing Neil Armstrong’s Footprints
What can we see from space? Popular TV shows suggest we can infinitely enlarge any image without any loss, but the real world is both much more complicated and much more interesting. We know Neil Armstrong’s footprints are still on the Moon—but can we see them? And from how far away? And what else can we see? The Internet is full of fascinating images.
Dr. Phil

295  Columbus IJ  1.5 hrs.
Exoplanets, Exobiology, Extensions of SF
How do the increases in exoplanet detection capabilities, and exobiological modeling, affect the world of science fiction and even fantasy? As projection and proof become harder to disambiguate, the following questions becomes pointedly important: What misreadings create misleading myths? Distract us away from possibilities that have now become probabilities or impossibilities? What are the problems with habitable moons that haven’t been answered? Why is the Goldilocks Zone of an M-class star not necessarily a Goldilocks Zone at all?
Geoffrey A. Landis, Dr. Charles E. Gannon, G. David Nordley, Ian Tregillis, David Brin

296  Columbus KL  1.5 hrs.
Writing the SF Novelette
Shorter than a novella but longer than a short story, the science fiction novelette presents a set of unique challenges, but has also produced some of the great classics of science fiction (including the original versions of The Bicentennial Man, Ender’s Game, Blood Music, and others), and remains one of the best ways for aspiring writers to learn the fundamentals of plot, structure, and characterization. A discussion of the particular risks and rewards of the novelette form, from the perspective of both established and emerging voices in short science fiction.
Eleanor Arnason, Brad R. Torgersen, Connie Willis, Michael Coorlim, Bud Sparhawk

Write What You Don’t Know

We remember English teachers lecturing: “Write what you know.” Well, we think you ought to write what you don’t know. How else can you write about space travel and alternate history and fire-breathing dragons and vampire detectives? We’ll discuss how a little research and common sense can give you just enough background to really write what you don’t know.

Louise Marley, Lynda Williams ORU, Howard Andrew Jones, Rachel Neumeier, Jack Skillingstead

So You Wanna Be A Writer

Join experienced pros and up-and-coming professionals to talk about the business of writing and publishing. How did they get their start? What advice do they have for newcomers? What’s a realistic view of your career arc? How is it best to start—novels or short stories? Hear answers to these questions and many more.

Betsy Dornbusch, Eldon Thompson, Jason Hough, Allen M. Steele, J. Kathleen Cheney

The Lives (and Deaths) of Stars

The night sky is ablaze with countless pinpoints of light, each a nuclear furnace creating the very elements that make us. Christian Ready presents the story of the birth of stars in nebulae, the formation of solar systems, the detection of extrasolar planets, and the process by which stars die, creating the next generation of stars, planets, and us.

Christian Ready

Men Writing Women

For many years, women writers were in the minority, particularly in science fiction. Worse, they were forced to adopt male or gender-neutral pseudonyms. Still, what is often overlooked is how many male writers have written stories from the female protagonist point of view or even using a female pseudonym. This panel will explore this issue from a variety of perspectives.

Stroll with the Stars

MEET AT: Hyatt Main Entrance on Wacker Drive. A nice morning stroll with some of our favorite Authors, Artists and Editors. (And we stress, “stroll”—def: a leisurely walk. This will not be a heart-pounding aerobic activity, it will be a stroll). Join us for some fresh air, a healthy stroll and some good conversation. A leisurely mile—which will take a little less than an hour.

Enhance your experience of the Worldcon Art Show with a docent-led art show tour. The tours are led by a variety of people with individual perspectives. Each will take about an hour. You’ll get an overview, discussion of particular pieces, and whatever each tour leader may bring. You might find yourselves talking about buying, bidding, and collecting, or the ways different media work, or how artists give a sense of realism while they’re showing strange devices and dreams. John Hertz has organized 2-3 tours a day. To join one, meet outside the Art Show in the Regency Ballroom Foyer when the tour starts.

The Personal Replicator (Well, Getting There)
It’s not Star Trek tech yet, but 3D printers are getting better and cheaper quickly, like personal computers a generation ago. One can print tools, sandals, plastic “cloth,” and plastic parts for just about anything, all for feedstock and a machine that costs a few thousand dollars. Higher-end machines can do more complex, multi-material objects. What are the economic and social implications? Are science fiction writers taking note of this technology?

Why I Love My Editor

Authors discuss advice their editors have given them that have improved their books and stories or helped advance their careers in unexpected ways.

Adam-Troy Castro, Marie Bilodeau, Seleste deLaney (aka Julie Particka), Anne Lyle, Kat Richardson

New Art Opportunities for the New Market

Bad economies are not always bad—sometimes they are the inspiration for new thought surrounding your product. As an artist in this economy, changing the size of your prints, the opportunity to number or not number your prints, and using a lower quality paper and ink might help get your prices down in to the affordable range.

Other thoughts are printing cards, puzzles, cups, etc. what can you do to keep your art and name in front of the buyers?

Jane Frank

Media Tie-in Novels: Art or Commerce?

TV, film, games—have been around for many decades. Can such works stand on their own, or are they just for fans of the original? From Dragon*Con the panelists will be Peter David, David Gerrold, Michael Stackpole

Matt Forbeck, Tom Dowd, Richard Lee Byers, Joe Haldeman

Strong Female Characters in SFF

How is the female character changing in current SF&F and why? What are the positive and negative influences on such characters in books, TV, and film? How do writers handle the treatment of strong female characters, and what are the popular and effective traits and devices? When do writers go too far, providing we can define “too far”?

Why Fantasy Dominates Science Fiction

How and why did fantasy emerge as the dominant commercial and literary force in the genre? Where did science fiction lose its way, in terms of attracting and keeping its share of the fans? What can written SF learn from motion pictures and television, and vice versa?
What can SF learn from the more successful fantasy works?

Democracy Is the Worst Form of Government, Can't We Do Better?
The title is from the Churchill quote: “Democracy is the worst form of government, except for all the others.” But it is still a poor form of government, except for all the others. Science fiction seems like the ideal forum for exploration of alternative forms of government better than all the others and perhaps better than democracy. So how are we doing?

She knows things. She has answers, but an avatar can only respond if petitioned. Rules are rules.

Philosophy and Science Fiction

We spend a lot of time talking about the nifty science in science fiction, but it has also been a place to explore philosophical ideas. From the use of Star Trek to raise questions of racial equality to Asimov’s laws of robotics and ethical questions about machines, philosophical issues are intrinsic to much of science fiction and fantasy. Let’s take a look at some of the most interesting philosophical questions (and maybe even attempts at answers!) in the genre.

Do Robots Make Better Lovers?
Most of us think of robots simply as the entities doing the drudgework that keeps civilization going. Or as the smart devices that keep our homes clean and tidy (sometimes a bit tidier than we really want). But it’s hardly a secret that you can order them with sex organs. Is a robot really your ideal sex partner: always willing, always responsive, insatiable until you tell it no? Or are human lovers, with all their foibles but true human emotions, really better? Our panelists will debate the topic.

Highlights of Tesseracts
The first Tesseracts anthology was edited by the late Judith Merril. Since its publication in 1985, more than 279 Canadian authors, editors, translators, and special guests have contributed 541 short stories and poems to the Tesseracts series. Some of Canada’s best known speculative fiction writers have been published within the pages of these volumes, including Margaret Atwood, Susan Swan, and Hugo and Nebula award-winning authors William Gibson, Spider Robinson, and Robert J. Sawyer. The entire series includes Tesseracts One through Sixteen, plus Tesseracts Q, which features translations of works by some of Canada’s top francophone writers of science fiction and fantasy. Come join Tesseracts anthology contributors Susan Forest, Derwin Mak, Brett Savory, and Sandra Kasturi as we look at some of the highlights of the series, and introduce the newest member of the Tesseracts family, Tesseracts Sixteen: Parnassus Unbound, edited by Mark Leslie.

Learning to Be Dangerous
In Gene Wolfe’s brilliant 1985 Guest of Honor speech at Aussiecon 2 in Melbourne, he proposed that instead of our field’s authors trying to escape our ghetto that we “open our gates and pull the rest in.” Historically, science fiction has made prophecies so new that the schools cannot hand them out without having their staffs picked up by the police. It’s our stock in trade. How do we do it and how do we teach others to do it?

What Good is an Editor?
What is the value add for having your work edited? You may have heard it said that you can’t edit your own writing, and it’s true. It’s difficult for actors to direct themselves. The Zeitgeist Movement

Come and learn more about The Zeitgeist Movement, a grass-roots social and economic movement that advocates for the replacement of all current economic models with a money-free and computerized “resource-based economy”. It promotes replacing human labor with automation, government through collective participation of the public by using the scientific method, aided by computers. Private property will not be abolished, but it will become obsolete as culture grows, being replaced by a system of universal access. If this sounds interesting (or dangerous) to you, come learn and debate about this economic and societal revolution!

Planet Earth at a Crossroads

Humans have made huge changes to our home planet. We’ve chopped down half the original forest to grow food. We’ve sucked giant lakes, rivers, and under-water aquifers dry. We’ve extracted the easiest to access fossil fuels and minerals from the crust. And we’re now warming the planet and acidifying the oceans at the fastest rate in millions of years. What does the future hold for our planet? How can we address these challenges? How should science fiction represent them?

World Building Workshop 3: The Ecosystem
What are the environmental conditions of this ecosystem? This is where you can bring in all the information from Workshop 1 and 2 (World basics and Life). Forest, field, sea, desert, mountain, tundra, lava flow jungle, whatever you have created, and tie them all together. People need food and water, plants need soil and water, animals need food and water—assuming of course you intend to create a world and creatures that most people reading about them can relate to. How much food is there, is there much water? On your new world the ecosystem will have to be very simple. We'll start big and work down.

Of course you can drill to any depth in your creation of a world, and your story line may require such an effort in one or two specific areas.

The Mechanics of World Building
All too often when authors talk about building a world, they talk about fiddly bits, like civilization and religion and politics. This panel looks at the really important things like how to sculpt the perfect fjord and who decides which point there ain't no mountain higher than.

China: A New World for Science Fiction
Come learn about the growth of western authors of science fiction in China, and the industry from its roots to its role as a major literature genre in the most populous country.

Heinlein's Ambassador to the Atom: Robert A. Cornog, Physicist
Robert Cornog (1912-1998), an engineer and physicist, was a close friend of Robert A. Heinlein before Heinlein's literary career began. Cornog, as a cyclotron experimenter, Manhattan Project participant, and rocket engineer, gave Heinlein a window on advanced research, and sometimes served as Heinlein's sounding board for the science that went into his fiction. Their correspondence across decades reveals a shared delight in technology, a passion for science fiction, and an urgent concern to curb the threat of a nuclear arms race.
Bill Higgins

Special Interest: Geocaching
Geocaching is an outdoor treasure-hunting game in which the participants use a Global Positioning System (GPS) receiver or other navigational techniques to hide and seek containers (called 'geocaches' or 'caches') anywhere in the world. Anyone can participate and geocaching works as a solo and group activity. Come learn about geocaching, meet geocachers, find trackable items and trade stories.

Medical Myths and Errors Perpetuated by Genre Writers
Though many authors take special care to be accurate about history, firearms, police procedures, physics, and other aspects of science and society, medical issues (like law issues) are commonly wrong in writing, TV, and movies. The least likely outcome of a bonk on the head is a quick blackout and a rise to action.

Stroll with the Stars
MEET AT: Hyatt Main Entrance on Wacker Drive A nice morning stroll with some of our favorite Authors, Artists and Editors. (And we stress, "stroll"—def: a leisurely walk. This will not be a heart-pounding aerobic activity, it will be a stroll). Join us for some fresh air, a healthy stroll and some good conversation. A leisurely mile—which will take a little less than an hour.

<td>Enhance your experience of the Worldcon Art Show with a docent-led art show tour. The tours are led by a variety of people with individual perspectives. Each will take about an hour. You'll get an overview, discussion of particular pieces, and whatever each tour leader may bring. You might find yourselves talking about buying, bidding, and collecting, or the ways different media work, or how artists give a sense of realism while they're showing strange devices and dreams. John Hertz has organized 2-3 tours a day. To join one, meet outside the Art Show in the Regency Ballroom Foyer when the tour starts.</td>

| 1.5 hrs.  | The Legal System as Plot Device
Sometimes the legal system is integral to the plot—for instance Alifie Bester's Demolished Man, Philip K. Dick's story that gave rise to the movie Minority Report, etc. When the legal system (or a part of it) is essentially a “character” in the story, what are the challenges? How “credible” must it be? How do you create a plausible legal system? How much of the system do you need to create/expose? To the extent that it greatly differs from what the reader is accustomed to, do you have to provide a rationale for it, or can you just provide it as a “given”?

Chicago’s Uniquely Quiet Fandom

In the 1959 Fancyclopedia II, Dick Eney wrote about Chicago: "Despite its conventions, the Windy City has always been fairly quiet as far as fan activity goes. Of old, the Windy City Vampires existed there, but this was an informal group. The Chicon I was put on by a special con-promoting organization." So is Chicon 7. Has Chicago ever had a fandom to rival that of other cities? Why hasn’t Chicago been able to create something like LASFS or NESFA, and the clubs of other cities?

Guilty Pleasures
Some movies are just awful and then others go beyond awful and becoming enduring classics of bad movie making. What movies are so bad that they’re good? What makes us keep watching turkeys like Plan 9 from Outer Space or Santa Claus Conquers the Martians? And what modern movies might be candidates for the pantheon of the terrible?

Where’s Thursday?
In the 1970s and 80s, a question like “when’s Phoenix” and “where’s Thursday?” was common among Chicago fans. No, we weren't confused. “Thursday” was the name of an informal meeting of fen who gathered in each others living rooms once a week on Thursday, of course. There was no formal business and the only rule was that Thursday was open to everyone. We invite you to join us on Thursday night as we recreate our youth, collate a retrospective Windy apa and argue over whose turn it is to go out for more Coke.

Inner Space vs. Outer Space
Are the stars, or even the solar system, in humanity’s future? Recent progress in genetics, neuroscience, computing, and nanotechnology has far outstripped progress in space exploration or travel. The problems that press on people and society the most—health care, aging, mental health, energy supplies, a damaged environment—have more to do with managing our planet than venturing into space. Should science fiction spend more time on the topics of inner space than outer space?

World Building Workshop 4: Aspects of Culture and Spirituality
It is easy to end up with a single monolithic religion, government, language, morals, etc. across your world and monoculture is boring. Your world will need some sort of spirituality, a political direction, a way to create and enforce law, morals etc… Religion and morality are tricky enough without trying to extend them to alien civilizations. We will consider in this workshop the high points of the culture and spirituality of world creation.

Page and Stage: Writing Science Fiction and Fantasy Scripts, and Why You Should

Writing for the stage radically improves any writer’s skills in pacing, plot, and especially dialogue. Moreover, the artistic challenge of creating a new world right there on stage with a limited budget and primitive effects, is exhilarating. Theatre audiences are eager for journeys into the unknown. Find out how to take them there and why you should.

Tactics of the Martian Interplanetary Defense League

Getting to Mars is more than just a question of pointing a rocket up, figuring out the best launch time, and pushing the button. Once you arrive near the red planet, you must avoid the Martian Interplanetary Defense League, which has destroyed dozens of terrestrial satellites and probes in an effort to maintain their planet’s secrets.

M. Martian, P. Lowell, G. Landis

Getting it Right: Religions

Your universes and societies may include religions, but it’s hard to ‘do it right’... not just the assumed theology, but the way the structure works internally and how it fits into the society. How do you avoid the clutches of the Evil Cardinal or the too-pious guru? Which authors have done it right, and what did they do?

Science Fiction in the Mainstream
Science fiction and fantasy have become increasingly popular in so-called ‘mainstream’ literature/writing. What are the best examples of this—what do they get right, what could we learn from them, and where do they go wrong?
Bevery FRIEND, Sarah Stegall, Gary K Wolfe, Eddie Schneider, John Kessel

Making a More Universal Worldcon
Does the revitalization of the SF and fantasy genre require them to embrace their younger counterparts in other parts of the world, leaving the nest of the English culture and language to venture in a more universal approach? Explore all the different approaches of the SF and fantasy genre in other languages and cultures.

More on the Topic of Philosophy and Science Fiction
We spend a lot of time talking about the nifty science in science fiction, but it has also been a place to explore philosophical ideas. From the use of Star Trek to raise questions of racial equality to Asimov’s laws of robotics and ethical questions about machines, philosophical issues are intrinsic to much of SF and fantasy. Let’s take a look at some of the most interesting philosophical questions (and maybe even attempts at answers!) in the genre.

Circelet Press 20th Anniversary Retrospective Multimedia Extravaganza (and Bingo Game)
2012 marks the 20th anniversary of Circelet Press, still the only publisher dedicated to sex-positive science fiction and fantasy erotica. When Circelet began publishing, the genre of “paranormal romance” didn’t exist yet, “science fiction” was for 14-year-old boys only (or so we were repeatedly told), “pornography” was by men for men, and “erotica by women for women” was a brand new concept to the publishing world. History is boring, but sex is fun and smutty books that open our minds to fabulous ideas are even more fun. This presentation by founder and editorial director Cecilia Tan looks back over the wild and varied history of Circlet Press and the ways the world, the genre, and publishing have changed. There will be prizes!

Incorporating the Personal into Speculative Fiction

If the sampling of short fiction presented and discussed in the New Yorker Fiction podcast is any indication, mainstream literary writers draw heavily on events from their own lives, sometimes barely veiled, as inspiration for their work. Since science fiction is generally regarded as writing of ideas, is there any room for this same mining of one’s personal experiences? Our panel will discuss to what extent when writing the fantastic they are writing about themselves.

Faith in Science Fiction & Fantasy

Faith can take many forms besides organized worship of a Higher Being, and yet, not a single Earth culture known to us exists absent a faith system in some form. What is the importance of faith in motivating human beings and in creating realistic worlds? What are the things people put their faith in? Magic? Science? Laws? Government? Wealth? Fame? Not a debate of the validity of ideas but a discussion of their value and use as motivators for all of us.

Getting the Most Out of Writing Groups

There are all kinds of writing groups for all kinds of writers. What should you look for and what rules should you follow to get the most out of the experience? How do you handle conflicting suggestions and how do you comment on others' writing effectively?

Bill Shunn, Sarah Stegall, David McDonald, Tim Susman, Derek Kunsken

1:50 pm

The “Other” Space Telescopes

When the phrase “space telescope” is mentioned, the public assumes the Hubble Space Telescope. But NASA and ESA have an armada of space telescopes studying the universe at wavelengths beyond the capabilities of Hubble. From the far infrared to the most intense gamma rays, there's a telescope in space exploring the universe at that wavelength. Christian Ready will discuss a few of these spacecraft and how they are helping to revolutionize our understanding of the universe.

Steampunk and Cosplaying: Boon, Threat, or Menace?

Everybody's seen the steampunk and cosplaying enthusiasts who've become a major part of SF conventions and fandom in general; is this new rise of organized costumers a benefit to SF fandom, or is it just a ephemeral trend?

Self Publishing – Why or Why Not?

It has always been an article of faith with professional writers that self-publishing lowers the quality of the merchandise. Is that still true, or is the explosion of self published e-books and print on demand volumes a new paradigm for authors? If you are going to self-publish, how do you do it right?

Tod McCoy, Sandra Ulrich Almazan, Sarah Stegall, Jeremy Lassen
Military Members on Military Science Fiction
A panel featuring current or prior military servicemembers, all nations, who are also professionally published writers. The focus will be on lending authenticity to military science fiction, the common mistakes made, suggested research, as well as suggested reading, both fiction and non-fiction, as well as anecdotal stories from the service careers of the panelists.

Brenda Sinclair Sutton, Bill Sutton, Jordin Kare

Bill and Brenda Sutton with Jordin Kare
Bill & Brenda Sutton are multiple Pegasus award winning musicians and songwriters who perform filk, folk, and Irish music, often under the band name Bed & Breakfast. Jordin Kare has been filking for 37 years, He's a Ph.D. astrophysicist and space systems designer. Many of his songs have become filk classics, including Fire In The Sky (quoted by Buzz Aldrin on national television), Darkness, and Heart of the Apple Lisa. The Suttons’ material bounces from Bheer to Beltane, vampires to volunteering, and time travel to tea—while Jordin is a punster and storyteller as well as a songwriter and (very occasionally, these days) a performer. Brenda is also a member of the award-winning band Three Weird Sisters. These old friends will entertain you as they polish off some old favorites.

Legend of the Galactic Heroes
In the late 80s anime OVA series came out which reflected classic Golden Age science fiction. It gathered a fan following, but unfortunately it has not reached our shores. Why haven’t more science fictions have heard of it?

Juan Sanmiguel, Isaac Sher

World Building Workshop 6: Daily Life
Based on the information from the previous panels (provided by our moderators) What is the general state of life on our created world? Based on all the decisions that were made by those in the previous panels are the people comfortable, struggling or extinct? What are their mores, their fashions and dress, their rituals with regard to mating and respect? What are their diet? What in do they do for fun?

Eytan Kollin, Dani Kollin, Seanan McGuire, Elizabeth Moon

| 6:30 pm | Gold Coast        | OkaRel Universe
The OkaRel Universe is a 10 novel series, published by Edge Science Fiction and Fantasy, set in a very different universe. The character-driven stories tackle themes of culture clash in a context where all-out war is so horrific it is all but obsolete, but passions still run high.
Jan DiMasi |
Too big to be restricted to the main series, the OkaRel Universe is also the setting of related works by both origin author, Lynda Williams, and others

SF&F Short Films–1
Noon–2:00 pm
Noon
The Watchmaker's Son – PG
Director: Brandon McCormick
Somewhere between a tock and a tick, when a boy became a man in a day.
The Watchmaker learned that his father was sick, Years after inheriting his trade.

12:09pm
Vessel – PG
Director: Carlo Treviso
VESSEL, or Vital Electronic Systematic Soul Extension Life-Unit, is the latest in robotic human technology. It is capable of harnessing a human soul upon death. The film centers around a young man and his wife who experience the mysterious process of a VESSEL soul transfer procedure.

12:16pm
The Legacy – PG
Director: Mike Doto
What would you do if you believed your father was a superhero? The Legacy brings to life a story about fathers and sons, imagination and magic, and believing in something larger than ourselves.

12:28pm
Mongrel's Creed – PG
Director: Thomas Noakes
Set in a future, dystopian reality, Mongrel's Creed is a short dark comedy about Jim Gravel, a jaded and miserable lifetime employee of the omnipresent "Company," condemned with the soul destroying task of reprogramming rebellious citizens into more controllable, obedient workers.

12:39pm
The Timeslip – PG
Director: John Chance
A business man crosses a busy city street ... and awakes trapped in another time. London is gone along with the buildings, cars and people; it has been replaced by a never-ending forest. The man wanders the wilderness alone, without food or shelter. Days pass and the man discovers he is not alone and that the forest holds dangers far worse than wolves...

12:54pm
Once a Upon a Time in 1972 – PG
Director: Chris Lukeman
Once Upon a Time in 1972 is a transistorpunk-science fiction-action-adventure-period piece. It follows the scientist hero, Spring Heeled Jack, through one crazy night in the possibly-alternate early seventies. This retro techno fairy tale follows Jack as he investigates a strange rift in space, battles a giant robot, and still manages to get the girl.
1:08pm
Dungeon Master – PG-13
Director: Rider Strong & Shiloh Strong

Shane and his friends thought it would be fun to recapture their 'geeky' youth with a game of Dungeons and Dragons. But then someone showed up in a cape.

1:21pm
Dirty Silverware – PG
Director: Steve Daniels

A man travels deep into the forest to stop an ancient creature from creating cursed silverware that brings unhappiness to the world.

1:38pm
Source – PG
Director: A.T.

AD 2044, Japan's once strong prestige in the international community has tarnished after years of economic stagnation. In order to reclaim its prestige, the National Strategy Bureau has resorted to an extravagant series of mass media psyops. This program is called "Source".

2:00 – 4:00pm

2:00pm
Cache – Fan Film – PG
Director: Cliff Ackman

Mal and Zoe first meet. I've wondered what transformed Zoe from a woman just like any other woman to the hard-ass soldier portrayed in the series.

2:09pm
Batman: Death Wish – PG-13
Director: Matthew Hiscox

Batman, Robin and Nightwing investigate a mysterious assailant who is targeting the kingpins of Gotham's criminal underground. As more of the rogues gallery is ensnared, a disturbing revelation about the attacker's identity takes shape.

2:22pm
Green Lantern Endgame – PG
Director: Michael A. Thompson

Rumors of The Green Lantern's (John Stewart) resignation from the Justice League ring true. Superman & Batman face one of their greatest challenges – talking him out of quitting the league.

2:42pm
Black Canary – PG
Director: Steven LaMarte

A story in the day in the life of Dinah Lance. By day, she tends bar to the police of Star City, but by night it's Dinah who really keeps the streets safe. Living up to the legacy of her policeman father in a different way, she takes on the identity of the Black Canary.

2:51pm
Star Wars: The Solo Adventures – PG
Director: Students at the DAVE School of digital Arts and Visual Effects

"The Solo Adventures" tells the tale of how Han Solo dropped his cargo at the first sign of an Imperial Cruiser. But of course there is a lot more to the story!
Thursday

2:57pm
Fallout: Nuka Break – PG-13
Director: Raphaël Hernandez and Savitri Joly-Gonfard
Join Twig (Zack Finfrock), a former Vault Dweller, Ben (Aaron Giles), a radiation-ravaged ghoul, and Scarlett (Tybee Diskin), a sexy former slave as they attempt to survive the harsh wasteland that is Fallout.

3:27pm
Captain Future – PG
Director: David Guivant
“Based on the sci-fi pulp hero of the 1940s and 50s and subsequent Japanese anime of the 1970’s, Captain Future will follow “Curtis Newton, a brilliant scientist and adventurer who roams the solar system solving problems, righting wrongs, and vanquishing futuristic supervillains.” Guivant’s version is set five years after the course of events in the novels and animes.

4:00pm
Absentia – PG-13
Director: Mike Flanagan
Tricia’s husband Daniel has been missing for seven years. Her younger sister Callie comes to live with her as the pressure mounts to finally declare him ‘dead in absentia’. As Tricia sifts through the wreckage and tries to move on with her life, Callie finds herself drawn to an ominous tunnel near the house that might also be connected to other neighborhood disappearances. Soon it becomes clear that the ancient force at work in the tunnel might have set its sights on Callie and Tricia … and that Daniel might be suffering a fate far worse than death in its grasp.

6:00pm
Thriller Theater – PG-13
Director: Michael S. Olson

The Artemis http://www.artemis.eochu.com/Artemis is a multiplayer, multi-computer networked game for Windows computers.
Artemis simulates a spaceship bridge by networking several computers together. One computer runs the simulation and the "main screen", while the others serve as workstations for the normal jobs a bridge officer might do, like Helm, Communication, Engineering, and Weapon Control.
Artemis is a social game where several players are together in one room ("bridge") , and while they all work together, one player plays the Captain, a person who sits in the middle, doesn't have a workstation, and tells everyone what to do.
